CETX withdrew their lawsuit because they apparently filed against the wrong person, it seems Vuzix has done the same.....looks like a PR exercise to me.

Never met the man, here's the history behind the CETX lawsuit that went nowhere: pacermonitor.com/public/case/20... Notice Vuzix has seemed to file the exact same script. I just focus on all the money that Vuzix keeps losing, that's not a distortion its verifiable fact, read the filings

Replying to @AvoidTheBag @IvanaBoastsky @MoxReports

Only thing verifiable is abundance of posts made by anonymous people in paid programmable fashion in a clear and evident effort to paint a negative image of co but yes sales and profits will speak volumes so I await them regardless of when ,,
